

Our Privacy Promise to you

For fifty years, our stakeholders have trusted Echoing Hills with their personal information.

Whether you are a donor, a volunteer, an organization, a community partner or a participant in our programs, our commitment to conduct business honestly and protect your privacy is at the heart of our Privacy Promise.

We will not sell, share or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity, nor send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations.

Echoing Hills collects information from the users of this website at several different points on the site. We use our visitors' Internet Protocol (IP) addresses to analyze trends, administer the site, track their movement and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use, however, the IP addresses are not linked to personally identifiable information.

It is possible that if you register for a program or newsletter that you may receive a fundraising appeal from Echoing Hills. Users may request to be removed from mailing lists at any time. To review or request corrections to your personal information collected by Echoing Hills, please contact us at development@ehvi.org.

To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors' information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation. Visitors to www.ehvi.org who donate through the website are asked to provide information, which is kept on a proprietary database. We will not share, sell or exchange donor's information for third party's fundraising or marketing purposes.
